ABOUT S.M.H.

Seek Monumental Heights (SMH) is a consulting company specializing in marketing communications services in the Tri-county area. The company offers a reliable, high-quality alternative to in-house resources for marketing, business development, event research/management and public / media relations. As well as assistance in grant writing, grant research and awards.

SMH will offer a true alternative to in-house resources, offering a very high level of practical experience, know-how, contacts and confidentiality. SMH will also be able to maintain financial balance, charging an affordable value for its services, and delivering an even higher value to its clients.

Seek New Heights is SMH sub-company for business consulting and speaking engagements (motivational, career and business focus). Our EMPOWERING presentations will leave you with solutions to some of your personal and professional related problems. As well as show you how imperative it is to Change Your Mindset: As the old saying goes “a mind is a terrible thing to waste,” - so is not fulfilling your purpose in your personal and professional life.

SMH invites you to experience Business on a Higher Level and let Seek Monumental Heights, “Take You to a Higher Level.”
